- Winter Gala Concert:

This was an outstanding success showcasing a wide range of talented, student performers (over 70 in total). It also introduced us, for the first time to the senior school choir, formed by the students themselves just three weeks ago. They performed two festive numbers to finale the event.

10th - 11th December

- State Fencing Championships:

Students who attend the fencing CCA attended this two day event with the following successes:

Poorvi Sriraman - Gold U14 girls foil & bronze in U17 foil

Kaleb Rawson - Bronze medal in U14 boys sabre

Aaryan Sharma - Top 8 in U20 boys sabre

13th December

- Educational Visit Grade X Business Studies students to Volvo

15th December

- Educational Visit Grade 8 & Grade 11 ESS students to Lalbagh Botanical Gardens

- Go Dreams Challenge:

Grade 6 students took part in this quiz event on Wednesday afternoon.

Thanks to Ms Namita for organising the event.

16th December

- PY Multicultural Day:

One of our best! It was a delightful morning, commencing with what can only be described as a colourful, cultural, celebration of learning. The children showed their amazing abilities in a variety of ways. We were pleased that the Grade V pupils not only introduced every Grade's performance but managed to act out a Hungarian Folktale, something a little different. Pupil's work, carried out during the social study lessons was presented in the classrooms with creative displays and artefacts. A successful end to Term I.

17th December

- TISB Inaugural Alumni Reunion:

This was well attended by alumni from various graduating year groups including attendees from as far back as 2003.

17th-19th December

- TISBMUN:

The sixth edition of TISBMUN was held between the 17th and 19th of December. This year featured the largest conference to date, drawing delegates from all over India. Over 500 delegates in total were involved over the three days. The theme of this year's event was International Diplomacy. TISB students did themselves proud producing many excellent performances.
